Eligible Applicants

Nursing homes, libraries, hospitals and schools for the blind or physically handicapped may borrow equipment and reading materials for use by eligible patrons in either a group setting or for individual use. The institution is responsible for keeping a record of the serial numbers of all machines assigned to the institution. Eligible residents, not the institution, are responsible for equipment borrowed directly using individual application.

Institutions such as schools, residential care facilities, hospitals, and other establishments regularly attended by blind and/or physically handicapped individuals may borrow special format reading materials and playback equipment solely for the use of persons certified as eligible, who must be the direct and only recipients of the materials and equipment provided by NLS.

Public or private schools where handicapped students are enrolled must submit an institutional application as well as individual applications for each student accompanied by certification of eligibility for each applicant.

For music materials, i.e., scores, instructional recordings, music magazines, individual applications must be submitted.

Number of persons unable to read or use regular printed material who will be served:

Talking book readers: _____ Braille readers: _____

To Be Completed by Certifying Authority

“Certifying authority” includes doctors of medicine; doctors of osteopathy; ophthalmologists; optometrists; registered nurses; therapists; and professional staff of hospitals, institutions, and public or private welfare agencies. In the absence of any of these, certification may be made by professional librarians. In the case of a reading disability, a M.D. or D.O. must certify this application.

Please print or type except for your signature.

I certify that the institution named serves persons who are unable to read or use standard printed material because of blindness, visual disabilities or physical limitations. I further certify that the reading materials and equipment borrowed will be used by such persons only.

Additional Services

BARD (Braille and Audio Reading Download)

BARD is a service offered by NLS and this library that allows qualified patrons and institutions to download audio and braille books and magazines to their computer, where they can unzip the file to a blank digital cartridge or jump drive, and listen to it on their library-provided player.

Note: Public Libraries may only sign up for a demo account on BARD, for the purpose of training individual patrons of the Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped in its use.
